

STORY OF PEARL

4 weeks old and thrown from a car like a piece of trash. This little bundle of fur was picked up by a good Samaritan and brought to the hospital. Her eye socket and her jaw were broken, her lip and her nose were torn from her face. Lacerations on her tiny legs required stitches. No animal should have to endure this pain. This baby had a horrible start in life but she was strong and wanted to live. The name Pearl was selected for her. Pearls are strong and beautiful. She was adopted by a family who own a jewelry store so the name was perfect for this little bundle of sweetness. She will heal from the cruelty inflicted early in her life. Pearl is a survivor and is so loved.
