

The Story of Bella Grace who became Lucy

Bella Grace was a puppy and part of a family for a year. She darted out the door one day and was hit by a car. She was paralyzed and her family had no funds to provide care for her. She was abandoned at the local animal shelter to be euthanized. She got the attention of a local rescue group who took her out of the scary, noisy shelter.

5 days after spinal surgery, was able to stand up for short periods of time but she needed a dedicated foster home who would provide the needed physical therapy and the love she would need to recover.

A special foster came forward to help. Having recently lost a beloved pet, this foster wanted to give another dog the opportunity to get well. She met Bella Grace and was trained by the vet as to what was needed to ensure recovery. The broken heart of this foster during the weeks following surgery as she bonded with this little dog who worked so hard to please her humans. The foster mom was struck by the incredibly loving nature of this fragile little dog and her desire to get well.

Thanks to the dedication of Dr. Ned Williams in Wilmington, a loving foster mom, R.A.C.E. and Paws-Ability, Bella Gace is walking, and you will be happy to know that her foster mom decided to adopt her! She got a new name from her loving family, LUCY! She now enjoys playing with her family, racing through her home to greet visitors, and going to the beach.

The foster mother had recently lost a dog that she thought was irreplaceable in every way and her heart was sad. Lucy shows her new family that although we never replace a beloved pet, there is not a limit to love.

Lucy has a happy life ahead of her. She is a sweet, fearless, devoted dog, and her new family feels very blessed to be a part of her miraculous existence.

The purchase this card will ensure that animals like Lucy get a 2nd chance at life.
